Made in the shade, eventually

Sixty students, staff, and volunteers gathered on a chilly Saturday in October to plant over 40 trees across the West Burlington campus. The trees were purchased through a grant from the Branching Out program sponsored by Alliant Energy and Trees Forever.

IN MEMORIAM

Rose Marie Karre

Rose Marie, wife of long time Keokuk campus science instructor, Fred Karre, died peacefully on May 28. Memorials can be made to the Keokuk Fine Arts Council or SCC's Fred Karre Endowed Memorial Scholarship.

Judge Richard P. Matsch

US Federal Judge Richard P. Matsch passed away on May 29, 2019. An alumnus of SCC, Matsch was appointed to the federal bench for the District of Colorado by President Richard Nixon in 1974.

During a 45-year career as a federal judge, Matsch handled several high-profile cases, including the desegregation of Denver schools. However, he is best known for presiding over the Oklahoma City bombing trials.

He and two of his brothers, Charles and Robert, were named Distinguished Alumni in 2003. The brothers established a scholarship shortly after they accepted the honor.

We are grateful to Judge Matsch's colleagues and fellow federal judges who donated to the scholarship in his honor.

Memorials can be made to the Match Brothers Memorial Scholarship.

Giving to SCC is a Tap Away

Changing lives is now as easy as taking a selfie.

Make an impact all year long with a recurring monthly gift. Take the bite out of a lump-sum gift and build it into your monthly budget to stretch your giving dollar. No checks to write and mail, no calls to make. Plans start as low as $5 and you can change your gift or end it at any time. Use your credit card, debit card, or set up a plan with your bank.

Get started now. Make your gift online. Visit www.scciova.edu/foundation and pick the giving opportunity that's right for you. Fund a scholarship, a special project, or support an important initiative—whatever your soft spot, there's a way you can help.
